

Reform in Information system, provision of freedom of information and speech

Today when we speak about the deepening of democratic processes, raising the political activeness of the population, the active participation of civil society in the political and social life of the country, without making the media freedom possible, without turning mass media into a platform that freely expresses their views and events to the events taking place, these goals cannot be achieved.

Today, on April 1, 2019, the Faculty of Organization and Management of Water Resources together with the students of the 401th group conducted a demonstrative lesson on topic "Reform in information system. Provision of freedom of information and speech" on subject of the Basics and Theory of forming a democratic society in Uzbekistan.

The demonstrative lesson was conducted by the assistant of the Department "Humanitarian Sciences" Khalima Botirova. At the open lesson the professors and teachers of the department, the senior researcher of the History Institute of the Academy of Sciences of the Republic of Uzbekistan Allayeva Nigora Ashirovna and other interested people participated as well. At the end of the lesson, the teachers expressed their views on the lesson and wished them success in their future career.

Report by M.Tosheva, a head of the department "Technical means of Education"